THE FIRST PRAYER
IN CONGRESS.

Thatcher's Military Journal,
Under Date of December XX, 1777, is Found a Note, containing the identical "First Prayer in Congress," made by the Rev. J. Duche.

Hamp Fox, of this place, is the pride of the "First Prayer in Congress," which was presented to him some months ago by the late George Washington Harry, a prosperous farmer of Christian county, who died in Hopkinsville, at quite an advanced age, during the past year. Mr. Harry had greatly prized this copy during many years of his life and the present owner very naturally puts a like estimate upon it.

It is as follows:

O LORD, our Heavenly Father, High and mighty King of kings, and Lord of lords, who dost from Thy throne behold all the dwellers on earth, and reignest with power supreme and uncontrolled over all the Kingdoms, Empires and Governments; look down in mercy we beseech Thee, on these American States who have fled to Thee from the rod of the oppressor, and thrown themselves on Thy gracious protection, desiring henceforth to be dependent only on Thee; to Thee they have appealed for the richness of their cause; to Thee do they now look up for that countenance and support which Thou alone canst give; take them therefore Heavenly Father, under Thy nurturing care; give them wisdom in council and valor in the field; defeat the malicious designs of our cruel adversaries; convince them of the meanness of their cause; and if they persist in their sanguinary purpose, O, let the voice of Thy own unerring justice, sounding in their hearts, constrain them to drop the weapons of war from their unnered hands in the day of battle. Be thou present, O God of wisdom, and direct the councils of this honorable assembly; enable them to settle disputes on the best and surest foundation. That the scene of blood may be speedily closed; that order, harmony and peace may be effectually restored, and truth and justice prevail among Thy people. Preserve the health of their bodies and vigor of their minds; shower down on them, and the millions they here represent, such temporal blessings as Thou seest expedient for them in this world, and crown them with everlasting glory in the world to come. All this we ask in the name and through the merits of JESUS CHRIST, THY SON, OUR SAVIOR AMEN.

OPENING ANOTHER MINE.

rapid Work in Increasing Output of Coal.

The old Arnold mine, which has not been operated for many years, is being rapidly re-opened and put in condition as a coal producer by the St. Bernard Coal Co.

President John B. Atkinson expects to load coal within two weeks from the time that work was begun on the opening, provided the weather is not so severe as to stop or hinder seriously the operations. Foreman John Smith has gotten into the old works and is pushing the draining, etc., as rapidly as possible. The side track is being laid and the ties put in this week. If no serious weather interferes there will probably be coal to load Monday morning next. This operation will materially increase the business of the shipping from Earlington, which is already the coal mining metropolis of Kentucky. The effect on the railroad business here, beside the increased shipping would probably be to necessitate an increased yard force and probably an additional switch engine.
Earlington has attained a pretty good growth as a coal mining town of enviable reputation but the town is still growing.

THE CHERRY ENDEAVORS OF

the Louisville Post says that England is contemplating following our example in the adoption of safety couplings. "The government inquiry into the terrible mangle among railroad men, which during the past ten years, reached 4,749 persons killed while 30,371 were injured, shows the accidents to have occurred chiefly among the switchmen. In consequence of this showing the Board of Trade sent an expert to study the systems to use in America. This expert has just returned here and brought with him specimens of the American automatic couplings, which, he reports, have reduced the number of accidents in America by 50 per cent. It is understood that the president of the Board of Trade, Mr.
Chas. Thompson Ritchie, will introduce a bill to make automatic couplings compulsory in Great Britain. Considerable opposition is developing against the bill as the change will cost £7,000,000 ($35,000,000)."

JUDGE DAY AT HOME.

The President of the Peace Commission Welcomed by the Stark County Bar Association.

Canton, O., Jan. 3.—Judge W. R.
Day, president of the peace commission in Paris, and late secretary of state, received a welcome home last evening which took the form of a banquet at the Barnett house, given by the Stark County Bar association.
His Old Law Partner was Master of Ceremonies.

Hon. W. W. Lynch, who was Judge Day's law partner in their younger days, but who now devotes his time principally to railroad management, was master of ceremonies. Judge George E. Ballwin, one of the oldest practitioners at the local bar and a very intimate friend of the guest of honor, delivered the welcoming address to which Judge Day responded.

Judge Day's Response.

Judge Day paid a high tribute to the legal fraternity of Stark county, tossing with an eloquent reference to the fact that he was a member of the association, and reciting his devotion to the country during the war and the incidents leading thereto. He then spoke of the matters which took him and his colleagues to Paris.

"Recognizing that there are certain matters which may not properly be discussed on an occasion of this kind, I think I may, nevertheless, say something to my brethren of the bar of the events which have occurred in the period of our separation.

"The most gratifying circumstance of our foreign relations during the war it would be found in the uniformly cordial and hearty friendship of the English nation before and during the struggle. Observing the obligations of neutrality and not stepping outside the requirements of international law, we had the sympathy and good will of that great power. I do not believe either nation seeks or should be benefitted by a formal alliance.

"Nevertheless the existence of cordial relations between people kindred by blood, speaking the same language and having the same ideals of civil liberty and good government is in fact the potency of which can hardly be overestimated. I have been asked about the work of the commissioners viewed from a lawyer's standpoint. I think I may say something to you about it."

Other addresses were delivered as follows:

"American Diplomacy," Hon. John Twigg Brooks, of Salem; "The President," Judge James H. Taylor, Carrollton; "Bench and Bar," Judge T. M. Mc-Carthy; "The Army and Navy," Col.
James J. Clark.

conscious. He is now at the hospital.

The men went to the room at midpriestess of the place says they were intoxicated at the time. It is supposed they blew out the gas.

THE CHANGE OF RULERS.

Spanish Sovereignty in the Island of Cuba Ceased at Noon of New Year's Day.

AMERICANS ARE NOW IN FULL CONTROL.

With a brief ceremony at the Palace at Havana January 1, Capitan General Linares Turned Over His Authority to Gen.
Wade, and His In Turn to Military Governor Brooke.

Havana, Jan. 1.—At noon to-day the sovereignty of Cuba passed into the hands of the United States, and the reign of Spain upon the western hemisphere came to an end. The Spanish flag, which for so many centuries has waived over the island, was hauled down, and in its place was hoisted the Stars and Stripes, which, within the last few months, has been unfurled upon other conquered territory.

It was exactly 12 o'clock when a detachment of American troops marched into the Plaza de Armas and stood up in the beautiful square in front of the palace recently quitted by Blanco and his ferocious predecessor, Weyler. The American commissioners arrived at the palace to afternoon having been invited on horseback from La Yedra.

Within the palace all preparations had been made to receive the conquerors.
Capt. Gen. Castellanos, who succeeded Blanco when the latter was relieved on the ground that his disfigurement rendering sovereignty would be too much for him, was waiting. In the main hall of the palace the meeting took place.

The staff of the retiring captain general, surrounded him. Cas-tellanos spoke briefly, formally delivering the island of Cuba to the government of the United States. Gen.
Wade made a brief reply, and immediately turned the island over to Gen.
Brooke, the military governor.

SPANISH FLAG LOWERED.

Then took place the event which must have cut like a knife into the heart of every Spaniard who witnessed the ceremony. The Spanish flag, which for over 400 years had waved from the palace, was lowered. At the same instant the yellow and red banners of the famous and infamous Cuban fortress and Morro castle came down forever. As the Spanish flag was lowered it was replaced by the Stars and Stripes, and as the latter floated to the breeze it was saluted with twenty-one guns.

After the American flag had been hoisted the bands played the American national hymn, and this was greeted with tremendous cheering by the crowd that had assembled in the Plaza de Armas. The American flag, which had been hoisted in the Plaza de Armas, along the Prado and the other main streets 100-000 persons frantically cheered the Americans and the United States. All the houses occupied by the Cubans were decorated, the flags, etc., that had been taken down after Gen. Lindwell's order forbidding demonstrations having been replaced.

The Cubans were frantic with enthusiasm. They shouted "Viva McKinley," "Viva America," and the streets were filled with their shrill shoutings mingling with those of the men.

The United States flag was unfurled on Calabana by Lieut. Fitzhugh Lee, Jr., and on Morro Castle by Lieut.
Wade, a son of Gen. Wade.

Receptacles were given to the Spaniards for the forts and other property which had belonged to the crown, after which there was a review of troops under General Keifer, William Hendrick and Col. Armfield. The review took place in Central park, and the troops passed before General Brooke, Lindwell and Lee. The Sixth Missouri, Second Louisiana, First Texas, Eighth regiments, Fourth Virginia, Fourth Iowa, Second Illinois and One Hundred and Sixty-first Indiana passed in review.

LEE THE LION OF THE HOUR.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee seemed to be the lion of the hour. As the crowd surged about flowers were thrown at him from balconies and open windows, and it was almost impossible for him to move his horse through the great concourse of people.

The One Hundred and Sixty-first Indian furnished one of the incidents of the parade. Every man in the last company as he entered Cayenne park, drew from under his uniform a small Cuban flag and waved it before the assembly. The Cubans went nearly wild with cheers and excitement, and Gen. Lee immediately sent Inspector General Col. Carroll Gullit, Jr., to order the Indians to put away the flags, which they did.

It is reported that the entire company is under arrest.

Maj. Russell Harrison took possession of Calabana fortress, where so many Cubans have given up their lives.

The upper court of justice was delivered to Dr. Laine, by order of Gen.
Brooke, while the eastonhouse was turned over to Col. Bliss. The latter found $1,400 in a safe, which had apparently been overlooked by the Spaniards. The civil government was submitted to the mayor of Havana, Marquina Esteban.

After the ceremonies were concluded a commission of Spanish officers came from the Habtat to take away the flag for several days from the Alfonso, and the royal chair or throne, which had been forgotten, but the American guard refused to allow them to enter the building.

There were several pathetic incidents during the transfer of sovereignty. Some of the Cuban officers who had been forgotten, but the
to enter the building.

SEÑOR ROMERO IS DEAD.

Washington, Dec. 31.—Señor Don Matias Romero, the Mexican ambas-embassy here yesterday, at 4.10 a. m.

As stated in these dispatches, on Wednesday last an operation for appendicitis was performed upon the ambassador, and although the operation was entirely successful, the resulting shock proved greater than he could bear.

I took medicine from four different doctors and they failed to do me any good. I got no relief until I began to use your famous Nubian Tea. I used about two dollars worth of it, and it did me more good than all the medicine I ever took. I have gained thirty-five pounds in weight and my health is in very good. I can sleep soundly and my appetite is excellent. I can recommend Planter's Nubian Tea to the world as being a God-send to any community. Mr. John E. Day. Died, at his home in Earlinton, on Friday, December 30, of malignant cancer, Mr. John E. Day, after a most painful illness of more than ten weeks' duration. Mr. Day was born in Hopkins county, February 14, 1846, and had been a resident of the county nearly all his life. In his early days he was a school teacher and in this capacity gave universal satisfaction. In 1888 he married Mrs. Gertrude Murphy, of Clarksville, Tenn., with whom he lived happily until his death. An affectionate, two devoted step-children, two brothers and a sister, with numerous distant relatives and a wide circle of friends mourn the loss of this good and useful man. From a religious standpoint, Mr. Day was a pronounced skeptic, but he believed in God and a future existence. He treated with respect the ministers and members of the various churches, was always ready to lead in singing, and kept open doors to ministers, local or transitory. In the community, he was prominent for his fair and honest dealing with all men, his tender kindness of heart and his unswerving veracity. No man in this county ever bore, as a citizen, a better reputation than did honest, eccentric Jack Day.

He was well posted upon current topics, having read and thought a great deal upon every subject of common interest; was fond of argument, a quick and ready speaker, a close and logical reasoner; was always ready to aid and assist all public enterprise. To say the least he was an exemplary citizen. During his long and painful illness he suffered the most intense agony which he bore with heroic fortitude until he found recovery impossible; then, only, would he consent to use opiates, preferring to endure his dreadful misery to contracting the morphia habit.

Mr. Day was an Odd Fellow in his early days, but had long since withdrawn membership. He was a member of the Golden Cross, in which he maintained a policy of $2,000, and of the Knights of Honor, in which he maintained a policy of $1,000. His remains were consigned to the silent tomb in the cemetery at this place Saturday afternoon, attended by a large following of sorrowing relatives and friends to whom we extend sympathy. May he rest in peace.

At a called meeting of Earlinton Commandery, No. 525, U. O. G. C., held at their lodge room, Earlinton, Ky., December 31, 1898, the following resolutions were read and adopted:

WHEREAS, He has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove by death from our midst Brother J. E. Day, therefore, be it Resolved, That by the death of Brother Day this commandery has lost one of its old and valued members, his family sustains the loss of a kind husband and diligent father, and the community a peaceable citizen.

Resolved, That we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well and accept this effecting dispensation as a reminder that we too must soon die.

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathy to the family so sorely bereaved and exhort them to look for solace to Him who alone can heal the broken heart.

Resolved, That the commandery room be draped in mourning and the brethren wear the customary badge of mourning for the next thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of the commandery, a copy sent the bereaved family and a copy furnished the Earlinton Bazaar for publication.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.

Charles Kolb a Yard Manager For St. Bernard Coal Co. at Louisville

ASSAULTED BY HIGHWAYMEN

Routed the Robbers, But Was Severely Hurt.

Louisville, Ky., Jan'y 1.—Mr. Charles Kolb, manager of the Fourteenth and Delaware street yard of the Louisville agency, St. Bernard Coal Company, was assaulted in his office by two masked highwaymen about 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening. The men were frightened away before they got any money.

Mr. Kolb was at his desk with about $200 before him posting his books preparatory to closing up. The safe was also open. The two men entered the door, pointed two pistols in his face and told him to hand over.

"Give us that money," spoke up one of the men growly.

"Don't raise a hull," said the other robber. "The quicker you give up the better for you."

Instead of handing over Kolb hit one of the robbers in the face and fought his way to the door, calling for the police. Before he reached the door they had hampered his face up pretty badly and cut the top of his head also with the pistols, which they did not fire.

His nose was laid open. He was weak from loss of blood when help came and he was removed where he was reported in a semi-conscious and critical condition until late last night. When visited today, however, he was doing well and the swelling was going down.

The highwaymen escaped and no track of them could be found.

Mr. Kolb is one of the best men engaged in the coal business in the city and has had years of experience with his present employers.

Loading Records. Some good records of coal loaders made at Morton's Gap for December, show as follows:

George Johnson.....13,185 bushels Joe Mitchell.....11,894 " Lesley Vaughan.....11,288 " Geo. Bran.....10,233 "

The earnings of these men varied from about $61 to $79. It is probable that some of them had boys helping them, but even then the record is great. The work was done in Diamond Mine of the St. Bernard Coal Company.

A Champion Record. George Dockery has the champion single headed record as a coal digger for the month of December. During that month he dug 3,889 bushels of coal and earned $15 67. He says some folks thought him broken down but if the run is as good in January he will dig 4,000 bushels. And it is whispered that George wants to make a wager that he can dig more coal in a given time than any man in the county. The above remarkable record was made in No. 9 mine of the St. Bernard Coal Company at this place.

His Life Was Saved. Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Haneibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave me great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise. This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at St. Bernard Drugstore, every bottle guaranteed.

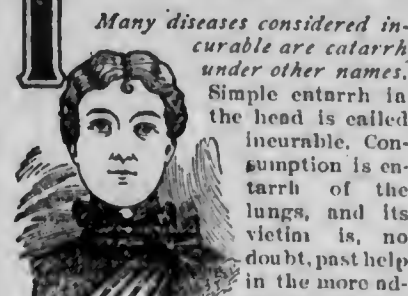

The union miners in the employ of the Carlin Coal Company at Carlisle, Ill., quit work on Wednesday last week. Their claim is that they have been unfairly treated in the matter of weighing, losing in some instances 150 pounds on the ton.

A Tacoma dispatch says that several days ago a solid five-foot ogre of ore was opened just a few feet below the surface in the Looma mines, which runs 20 per cent. pure copper, and also carries twenty ounces of silver to the ton and a paying quantity of gold.

It has been demonstrated repeatedly in every state in the Union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventive and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V. Fisher of Liberty, W. Va., only repeats what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy but it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by St. Bernard Drugstore, Earlinton; Geo. King, St. Charles.

INCURABLE DISEASES

Many diseases considered incurable are curable under other names. Simple catarrh in the head is called incurable. Consumption is catarrh of the lungs and the victim is, no doubt, past help in the more advanced stages; but great numbers of people die of consumption needlessly. It is certain that every phase of catarrh, including many cases of consumption, are cured by the right treatment. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, great prescription, strikes catarrhal diseases scientifically and cures them. Dr. Hartman explains it fully in his books which are mailed on application. There is a letter from Mrs. Hartman, Miss Maudie, Wis., who is one of many cures of consumption by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

PERUNA Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

DEAR SIR:—I cannot praise your remedy too highly. Last winter I had a gripe and hemorrhages of the lungs followed. All the doctors around here told me I had to die of consumption. Then I thought I would ask Dr. Hartman for advice, which I did. He prescribed Peruna for me, and I took it according to his directions and was cured. I advise everybody that is troubled with lung disease to take Dr. Hartman's treatment. I am sure they will not regret it if they do. I am now enjoying good health, and can thank Peruna for it.
